

INDEX.

- Abernathy, ———, probate judge of Litchfield, N. Y., 38.
- Abolition, Morton's views on, 80-82; Webster and, 111.
- Accomac, delegates to Charleston convention, 295.
- Acker, Henry S., letter to Hunter, Democratic party in Pa., recommends increase of tariff, 333-334.
- Africa, slave trade with Brazil, 87; return of slaves to, 336.
- Ager, B. F., charges against Pierce denied by, 146.
- Agriculture, nat. soc. of, 36. See also Lands.
- Alabama, political conditions (1840), 34-35 (1842), 49; Calhoun's strength in 61; Calhoun's plantation in, 77; anti-Douglas delegates at Charleston, 320; action of delegates at Charleston, 322, 326, 328.
- Albemarle, Va., delegates to Charleston, 296.
- Alexander, James, letter from Hunter, publication of Leake's letter, 252.
- Allegheny, Pa., bond case, 288.
- Allen, ———, N. Y., 50.
- Ambler, William M., support of Hunter, 222; letter to Hunter, recommending W. J. Robertson for Supreme Court, 334.
- American Revolution, land claims due Va. soldiers, 155.
- Anderson, ———, commissioner of customs, removal of, 230.
- Anderson, D. R., acknowledgment to, 12.
- Annapolis, Dem. caucus at, 61; library, 133.
- Appleton, John, resignation of, 272.
- Argus. See Wheeling Argus.*
- Arkansas, Calhoun's strength in, 61; anti-Douglas delegates at Charleston, 320.
- Armstrong, Robert, editorial on Pierce charges, 147.
- Army, U. S., accounts of disbursing officers, 142-144; number of majors in, 166-167; organization of, 266-269;. See also West Point Military Academy.
- Ashe, Thomas S., urges distribution of Hunter's speech, 298.
- Atchison, David R., resolution signed by, 104; mentioned, 142; letter to Hunter, the fight for Kansas, 160-161; Butler's remarks concerning, 182.
- Atkinson, ———, support of, 190.
- Austin, ———, collector, removal by, 314.
- Australia, gold production, 140.
- Austrian question, Hunter's speech on, 108.
- Bache, Prof., 162.
- Bagwell, Dr., surveyor of the port, 157.
- Bailey, G., letter to Hunter, Indian reservations, 319.
- Baird, Capt., Edward R., acknowledgment to, 12.
- Baker, ———, Pa., delegate to Charleston, 299, 300; influence of, 300.
- Baltic, blockade, 204.
- Baltimore, library in, 133; election of mayor, 199; commercial position of, 337.
- Baltimore convention (1844), N. Y. delegates, 65; (1852), delegates, 140, 141; (1856), 184; (1860), Hunter at, 9; delegate, 326; Tenn. resolution, 331; difficulties before, 332; nominee, 335.
- Banks, Dr., convention at hotel of, 191.
- Banks, A. D., relations with Hunter, 179, 180, 190. political report, 187.
- Letters to Hunter:* (1855), local politics in Va., 171-172; (1857), Wise's candidacy for Senate, 211-212; latter's candidacy for reelection, 229-230; Buchanan and Hunter, latter's candidacy for reelection, 250.
- Barbour, ———, of N. Y. custom house, 60.
- Barbour, ———, political attitude, 218.
- Barbour, ———, relations with Hunter, 315.
- Barbour, Alfred, political opinion of, 214, 220.
- Barbour, James, support of Hunter, 214; political opinion of, 212.
- Barbour, John S., Jr., political opinion of, 220-221, 273; and Charleston delegates, 296.
- Letters to Hunter:* (1851), opposition to latter, 212-213; latter's candidacy for reelection, Kan. controversy, 214-215.
- Barings, Messrs., of London, Richmond agency, 163.
- Barksdale, William, candidate for Speaker, 274.
- Barnard, Maj., acting supt. West Point, 269.
- Barnes, ———, of Boston, 54.
- Barnett, Charles C., to members of Congress, 35-36.
- Barringer, Daniel M., letter to Hunter, election results, 200.
- Barton, ———, and the New Orleans Courier, 120.
- Batten, Dr., of Smithfield, Va., 33.
- Bawdish, ———, collector, Vt., influence of, 307.
- Baylor, C. G., letter to Hunter, New Orleans support of Hunter, 310-311.
- Baylor, Robert, letter to Hunter on conduct at Univ. of Va., J. Randolph, Fredricksburg horse races, 27-28.
- Bayly, Thomas H., and the printing contract, 124; and the Senate, 130, 150; and vice presidency, 138; attitude toward Hunter, 150; position for brother-in-law, 157; death of, 191.
- Bayly, Mrs., Thomas H., engagement of, 230.
- Beale, ———, quarrel with, 232.
- Beale, ———, of the Spirit of Jefferson, 305.
- Bedinger, Henry, letter from, 120; Wise and, 156.
- Benecia, Calif., advantages as port of entry, 98-104.
- Benett, ———, political activity of, 288.
- Benjamin, Judah P., relations with Hunter, 9; speech by, 332.

- Benton, Thomas H., candidacy of, 32; opposition to, 43; and Calhoun's candidacy, 56; and Texan question, 75; resolution concerning public printing, 96.
- Berrien, John M., proposed for com. against Willmot proviso, 104; speech on slavery, 108.
- Berryman, O. H., letter to Hunter, asks aid of Congress, a captured slaver, 329.
- Biggs, Asa, letter to Hunter, political conditions, southern man for presidency, 308-309.
- Bigler, William, Pa. delegate to Charleston, 299, 300; reference to, 333, 334.
- Bimetallism, advantages of 139-140. See also Currency.
- Black, Jeremiah S., opinion of, 210.
- Blackwood's Magazine*, 171.
- Blair, Francis P., and public printing, 96.
- Blake, Dr., influence of, 235.
- Blow, —, Va., political attitude, 190.
- Bocock, Thomas S., correspondence destroyed, 12; message for, 125; aid solicited, 135; Va. delegate, 140; letter to Hunter, senatorial campaign in Va.; Walker and Kan., 210-211; political opinion of, 226, 231; and the contest for Speaker, 253, 254, 273-274, 278; letter to M. R. H. Garnett, speakership contest, 273-274; telegram to W. P. Miles, nominations at Charleston, 320; telegram to Hunter, southern delegation could prevent nomination of Douglas, 320.
- Bocock, Willis P., letters to Hunter: (1847), latter's election to Senate, 84-85; (1851), political conditions in Va., position of Wise, 124-126.
- Bohemia, conditions in (1849), 93.
- Booker, —, Elizabeth City, Va., proposed as Charleston delegate, 295.
- Booker, George, relations with Hunter, 32, 206, 207; support of Hunter, 179, 189, 191; delegate to Cincinnati convention, 194; opposition to Enquirer, 251.
- Letters to Hunter*: (1852), Wise's friendship for latter, 144-145; Pierce's cabinet, 149-150; (1856), the South and the Union, 200-201.
- Booker, James, influence of, 217.
- Boston, collector of the port, 79-80; Catholics in custom house, 83; southern sympathy in, 277; manufacturing strength, 337.
- Boston Courier*, policy of, 254.
- Boston port bill, 341.
- Bottes, George, letter to J. A. Scoville, Calhoun press in Litchfield, 38-39.
- Botts, John M., political attitude of, 73, 148; influence of, 85; candidate for Congress, 90-91.
- Bouck, Gov. William C., appointments, 52; opposition to, 58; and the vice presidency, 59.
- Bowling Green, Va., delegates to Charleston, 296.
- Boyd, Linn, and the presidency, 195.
- Boykin, —, of Isle of Wight, candidate for delegate, 190.
- Bragg, Col. Braxton, proposed for brig.-gen., 267.
- Branch, Lawrence O., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Braxton, —, candidate for Congress (1841), 38.
- Brazil, slave trade, 87; relations with U. S., 87, 89; slaver captured on coast of, 329.
- Breckinridge, John C., pres. candidacy (1860), 9, 272; vice pres. candidacy, 199; letter from T. S. Ritchie, 287; attitude of South toward, 301; proposed at Charleston convention, 322.
- Brewster, Benjamin H., letter to Hunter, nomination of Foster for gov. of Pa., delegates to Charleston, 299-300.
- Bright, Jesse D., appointment with, 163-164; land interests at Superior, 169; map of Superior prepared by, 169, 170; and Kanawha Coal Co., 172, 176; political attitude of, 181, 197; election as Senator, 200; opposition to, 213; relations with Douglas, 216; influence of, 236; contract given for road, 262; and the presidency (1860), 272; and Wright, 323.
- Letters to Hunter*: (1854), land interests on Lake Superior, free States lost to Democrats, 158-159; (1855), description of Superior, 168.
- Bright, Michael S., representing land interests, 159.
- Broad Seal controversy, 351.
- Brockenbrough, —, quarrel with, 232.
- Broadhead, Dr., 3d auditor, removal of, 230, 235.
- Bronson's Review*, 78.
- Brooke, —, Va., attitude of, 73.
- Brooke, Maj.-Gen. George M., at Pensacola, 95.
- Brooke, Robert, and Kanawha coal, 176.
- Broom, James, letter to Hunter, newspaper for Calhoun, 62.
- Broughton, T. G., 33.
- Brown, Aaron, V., and the presidency, 231; support of Hunter, 250; conversation concerning Hunter's candidacy, 255.
- Brown, John, attitude of Republicans toward, 278; attitude of northern Democracy toward, 277-278; raid, 273, 281-284, 288, 293, 294, 338.
- Brown, William G., delegate to Charleston, 301.
- Browne, N. B., Pa. delegate to Charleston, 300, 319, 320.
- Bruce, Charles, and Kanawha coal lands, 160.
- Bryant, William C., and Calhoun article, 40.
- Buchanan, James, Pres. candidacy, (1844) 56, 57, 61, (1852) 125, (1856) 173, 180-181, 183, 195, 196, 198, 199; popularity in Va., 140, 141, 187; patronage asked of, 156; position on tariff and Mo. compromise, 189; ratification meeting, 196; election of, 200; cabinet, 200, 201, 202, 205, 211, 224, 235; policy toward South, 201; administration of, 205; opposition to, 211, 215, 217, 219, 221, 324; Hunter's attitude toward, 217, 219-220; 224, 225, 230, 234, 236, 237-238, 240; attitude on appointments, 235; and Hunter's letter on Kan. question, 250; reply to Conn. clergymen, 253; suggestion concerning new journal, 254; and reelection, 271-272; message of, 285; appointment by, 332.
- Buckner, William A., delegate to Charleston, 296.
- Bulwer, Sir Henry L., letters to Hunter: (1850), colonization of negroes in West Indies, 119; on proposal to send negroes to W. Indies, 121-122.
- Buret, James G., letter to Hunter, Buchanan's wish for reelection, presidential candidates, 271-272.
- Burk, L. P., paper owned by, 38.
- Burnett, Henry C., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Burwell, William M., letter to Hunter, Kan. question, Democratic policies, acquisition of Mexico, 262-266.
- Butler, Andrew P., mentioned, 96, 142, 174, 180; resolution signed by, 104; invitation to, 133; letter from I. E. Holmes, 182; in reply to Sumner, 196.
- Butler, Gen. B. F., Hunter's home destroyed by, 10.
- Byrdsall, F., sec. Calhoun com., 65.

Cabell, E. Carrington, election of, 120.

Calhoun, John C., and the presidency, 8, 31, 32, 38-79 passim, 89-90, 313; Hunter's proposed Life of, 10, 366; party organized in N. Y. for, 39n.; agreement of com. of five on candidacy of, 44-48; biography for political ends, 47, 49, 58, 60, 61, 63; newspaper in interest of, 62; conversation with Seddon, 66, 67-68; as Sec. of State, 87; resolution signed by, 104; speech of, 106; on compromise measures, 107; appreciation of, 109-110; death of, 110, 111; Works of, 129-130; Crallé's Memoirs of, 245; political policy of, 283.

Correspondence: To Hunter (1842), his political strength in South, 48-49; (1844), situation in Va., Ritchie, consolidation of Spectator and Madisonian, 72; (1845), Ellsworth's removal, special messenger, Benton and Texas, 75; Polk's Cabinet and policy, 75-77.—To —, proposed visits, proposes a southern convention, political views, 77-79.—From Marcus Morton, 79.

California, wants of emigrants, 96-104; population (1850), 97; slavery and, 108-109, 111, 112, 113, 114, 115, 243; admission of, 117; gold production, 139-140; Indian service in, 319.

California, Upper, population (1849), 97.

Camden, Judge, political opinion of, 220.

Camden, Glendon D., letter to Hunter, commends latter's speech, influence of northern Methodists, 291-292; documents requested by, 297.

Camden, Glendon D., Jr., letter to Hunter, southern Methodists for slavery, 297.

Cameron, Simon, military reservation and, 159.

Campbell, —, political attitude of, 289.

Campbell, James M., charges against Pierce denied by, 146.

Campbell, John A., at peace conference, 9.

Canal, between Lakes Huron and Ontario, 170.

Canning, George, and Spanish colonies, 183.

Caperton, —, Georgetown, 133, 134.

Caperton, Allen T., of Va. legislature, political opinion of, 250.

Capitol, U. S., enlarging of, 216.

Capon Springs, Va., Webster's speech at, 343.

Cardwell, Wyatt, attitude of, 215-216.

Carey, John, attitude in speakership contest, 274.

Carrington, —, of Charlotte Co., Va., 160. •

Carroll, Charles, early life of, 133.

Cary, —, of Hampton, Va., resolution by, 194.

Caskie, John S., visit to Calhoun, 66; political attitude of, 90-91; aid solicited, 135.

Cass, G. W., map sent to, 169; request of, 171; contract signed by, 262.

Cass, Lewis, and the presidency, 56, 57; pamphlet by, 72; candidacy, (1848) 90-91, (1852) 125, 137, 140, 141, 142.

Cassidy, —, Pa. delegate to Charleston, 299.

Catholics, Morton's attitude toward, 82-83.

Catlett, John W., chairman district convention, 192.

Causnan, —, Williamsburg, Va., resolution introduced by, 192.

Cayru, Barad de, Brazilian minister of foreign affairs 88, 89.

Central America, U. S. relations with, 285.

Chapman, —, Orange, Va., support of Wise, 215.

Chapman, Gen., political position of, 126, 241; conversation concerning Hunter, 243, 244.

Chapman, Gov. Reuben, and vice presidency, 138-139.

Charleston convention, Virginia's vote for Hunter, 9; New England delegates, 272; Va. delegates, 274, 289, 293, 295, 296, 301, 303-304, 314-316, 317 352; outlook of South at, 286; Hunter delegates, 287; Va. attitude toward, 292; Pa. delegates, 299-300, 310, 319-320; Maine delegates, 301; Vt. delegates, 307; mentioned, 308, 313; Ill. delegates, 313, 314; Iowa delegates, 313; proceedings, 320, 322, 325, 327, 328, 331; and the protection of slavery, 321; Ohio delegates, 330.

Charleston Mercury, opposition to Tyler's administration, 65; cited, 66-67; southern resolutions in, 69; opposition to Hunter, 182.

Charlestown, situation in, 119.

Charlottesville convention, 73.

Chase, Salmon P., political leadership, 170.

Cheney, T. Apollon, letter to Hunter, choice for president, 335.

Chestertown, Md., proposed sketch of, 133.

Chile, barley for Cal., 102.

Chilton, —, of Fauquier, Va., influence of, 125.

Churubusco, battle, 95.

Cincinnati, O., newspapers, 159.

Cincinnati convention, Va. delegates, 170, 181, 194, 304; presidential candidates, 175, 192, 193, 195; result of, 188, 196; Ind. delegation, 213; interpretation of platform, 323.

Cisco, John J., introduction by, 184.

Clark, George Rogers, conquests of, 358.

Clark, Hugh, Pa. delegate to Charleston, 310.

Clark, Gen. John B., attitude in speakership contest, 274.

Clarke, —, work on map of Superior, 168-169.

Clay, — (1860), and Hubbard, 318.

Clay, Henry, and presidency (1840), 32; pamphlet against, 36; candidacy (1844), 72; defeat of, 72; leadership of, 312.

Claybrook, —, attitude toward Hunter, 218.

Claybrook, R. C., speech by, 192; delegate to Cincinnati convention, 194.

Clayton, Philip, and Merrick case, 209; and the currency, 270.

Clemens, Sherrard, support of Hunter, 178; mentioned, 180; attitude in speakership contest, 274.

Clements (Clemens?), political influence of, 181.

Clemson, Thomas G., Calhoun's son-in-law, 51-52, 366.

Clemson, Mrs. Thomas G., Calhoun's daughter, 366.

Cobb, Howell, political secession of, 148, 149; Pierce and, 151, 153; influence of, 213; attitude toward, 216; and the presidency, 227, 231, 235; attitude toward Va. contest, 229; attitude toward Hunter, 250; delegates for, 310; name on telegram, 320.

Letters to Hunter: (1857), dismissal of Merrick, Thompson's claim, 209-210; (1858), estimate of public revenue, political conditions, 261-262.

Cobb, Williamson R. W., attitude in speakership contest, 274.

Cochrane, John, attitude in speakership contest 274.

Coinage. See Currency.

Coleman, Charles W., coal lands, 160.

Coleman, Frederick W., letter from Wm. L. Jackson, 171; letter to Hunter, popularity of Hunter and Wise, 280; conference with, 286, 287.

- Coleman, Richard H., Letters to Hunter; (1860). Va. will support latter for presidency, 286-287; Wise defeated at Richmond convention, Hunter delegates, 295-297.
- Compromise of 1850, Calhoun's speech, 106; Goode's opinion of, 111-112; and the South, 112, 114, 115 132; discussion of, 114, 116-118; the North and, 238.
- Congress, jurisdiction over territories, 256-261; twenty-sixth: petition from C. C. Barnett, 35-36; speakership contest, 351-352; thirty-fifth: contest for Speaker, 253-254; thirty-sixth: speakership contest, 273-274.
- Connecticut, Buchanan's reply to clergymen of, 253; Democratic gain in, 315.
- Conrad, Judge, N. Y., speech of, 145.
- Conrad, Charles M., influence solicited, 119.
- Conservative convention (1867), Hunter's speech before, 353-359.
- Constitution, U. S., Calhoun's views on, 129; amendments proposed, 285; and secession, 339-345.
- Constitution*, 310, 328.
- Cook, J., letter to Hunter, Ill. delegates, 314.
- Coombs, —, assistant editor of the Union, 59.
- Copper, —, sentence commuted, 280.
- Corbin, —, Va., candidate for Congress, 38.
- Corcoran, —, land interests, 159; payment of notes given to, 169; contract signed by, 262.
- Corning, Erastus, niece of, 271.
- Corwin, Thomas, attitude toward Seward, 278.
- Covington and Ohio Railroad, 176, 279.
- Cox, —, friend of Calhoun, 74.
- Craig, —, and Kanawha settlers, 220.
- Craige, Burton, attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Crallé, Richard K., Calhoun letters published, by 366.
- Letters to Hunter*: (1850), compromise measures, 106-108; (1851), publication of works of Calhoun, 128-130; (1857), Kansas question, Southern rights, political situation, 243-245.
- Crawford, Martin J., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Crittenden, John J., influence of, 119, 135.
- Crockett, —, Va. delegate to Charleston, 316.
- Crooke, Philip S., and Calhoun's candidacy, 40, 41, 48; candidacy, 44; mentioned, 52.
- Cropper, T., speech by, 194.
- Crosman, Maj. G. H., letter to Hunter, accounts of Army disbursing officers, 142-144.
- Croxton, Thomas, letter from Hunter, 337.
- Croxton's Springs, Va., convention at, 38.
- Crump, William W., letter to Hunter, political activities of Wise, 227-229; influence of, 242.
- Crutchfield, Oscar M., opposition of Wise to, 251.
- Cuba, Pierce's policy regarding, 151; question of annexation, 154, 165.
- Culver, —, and Mexican War, 105.
- Cunningham, James, title to land of, 35.
- Currency report on change in, 139-140; regulation of, 232-233; standards of, 270. See also Bimetallism.
- Currie, —, and proposed Life of Calhoun, 59.
- Curtiss, Edward, and Calhoun's candidacy, 43, 50; political position in N.Y., 54; appointments by, 60.
- Curry, Jabez L. M., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Cushing, Caleb, Hunter on, 128; appointed Atty. Gen., 156; speech of, 254; proposed by newspaper for vice president, 303.
- Custis, —, of Accomac, speech by, 193.
- Customs, estimate of returns (1858), 261.
- Cutting, Francis B., support of Hunter, 352.
- Cutts, James M., appointed 2d comptroller, 235, 236.
- Dallas, George M., mentioned for presidency, 141; literature forwarded by, 232.
- Daly, Charles P., election of, 52.
- Dandridge, Mary E., Hunter weds, 7; illness of, 48; Dandridge, Philip P. and Kanawha coal lands, 160, 177; at Kanawha, 220; letter to Hunter, latter's strength in Va. convention, 303-305.
- Daniel, Judge Peter V., proposed candidacy for Senate, 217; conversation with, 226; successor to, 332.
- Davis, Col., mentioned, 119; proposed for brig.-gen., 267.
- Davis, Lieut., of the Saratoga, case of, 87-89.
- Davis, Garrett, and Mexican War, 105.
- Davis, Jefferson, attitude toward slavery, 9; dispute with Hunter, 10; resolution signed by, 104; and vice presidency, 138; letter to Hunter, introducing J. W. Smith, 147; proposed at Charleston convention, 322; resolutions at Balto. convention, 332.
- Davis, Reuben, attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Davis, Richard, and Calhoun's candidacy, 50-51.
- Dawson, John L., land interests, 159; Pa. delegate to Charleston, 299.
- Letters to Hunter*: (1855), land interests on Lake Superior, Kansas troubles, 163-164; prosperity of Superior land interests there, Superior land interests, the South and the presidency, 169-170; Superior lands, 170-171; (1858), road to Medary, 262.
- Dawson, William C., candidate for Senator, 120.
- Decker, Barney, incident concerning, 106.
- DeJarnette, Daniel C., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- DeLafield, Maj. Richard, probable supt. of West Point, 269.
- Delevan, Charles H., and Calhoun's candidacy, 43.
- Deming, —, N. Y., conversation with, 38.
- Democratic Platform*, Washington, D. C., 159.
- Democratic Recorder*, support of, 178.
- Deneale, —, and the Rockingham resolutions, 256.
- Denman, —, editor of Truth Teller, 40.
- Dennett, George, letter to Hunter, N. Y., as battle ground for southern candidate, 313; letter introducing, 314.
- Denver, James W., opinion concerning slavery, 262; opinion concerning Indian policy, 319.
- Deseret boundary, 112.
- DeWitt, —, proposed purchase of newspaper, 213, 215, 216.
- Dickinson, Daniel S., and the Brown raid, 277; opposition in Va. to, 279.
- District of Columbia, control of Congress over, 258.
- Dix, John A., and the Brown raid, 277.
- Dodge, Augustus C., candidacy of, 159; and the vice presidency, 216.
- Donelson, Andrew J., and German affairs, 92; political attitude of, 126, 198; attitude toward Webster, 128.

- Dougherty, Judge Charles, Ga., attitude on compromise, 120.
- Douglas, Beverly B., land interests, 159; resolutions offered at Richmond convention, 295; letter from Hunter, gubernatorial contest, Va., politics, 359-365.
- Douglas, Stephen A., popularity of, 126; letter from 127; movements of, 128; and the presidency (1852), 137, 138, 141, (1856) 195, (1860) 272, 273, 284, 301, 306-307, 314, 315, 316, 320, 322, 325-326, 327, 330, 331, 335; mentioned, 142; position of, 172; resolutions favoring, 180; political attitude of, 197, 245, 261; relations with Bright, 213, 216; Southern opposition to, 279; resolution in Senate, 300; possible coalition with Hunter, 309-310, 313; on the Dred Scott decision, 316; attitude of Wise supporters toward, 317; and McLean, 321; opposition in Va. to, 325.
- Douglas Co., Wis., population (1860), 287.
- Downs, Solomon W., resolution signed by, 104.
- Dred Scott decision, Douglas and, 316; effect of, 321; interpretation of, 323.
- Drinkard, —, of the Virginian, at the Fairmont convention, 301.
- Drinkard, Col., mentioned, 171.
- Drumgoole, George C., candidacy, 64.
- Duckwall, —, Va. delegate to Charleston, 304, 315.
- Duncan, John W., letter to Hunter, latter's opposition to homestead bill and intervention, Georgia politics, 147-149.
- Dunn, —, Va., candidate for State senator, 229; attitude toward Hunter, 242.
- Dunnington, C. W. C., Letters to Hunter: (1857). Va. senatorial contest, 213-214; candidacy for reelection, Dodge and the vice presidency, 216; Va. politics, Buchanan's cabinet, 224; opposition to latter, Wise, Floyd, Faulkner alliance, 230-231; Va. politics, Cobb and the presidency, N. Y. Herald, 235-236.
- Dutchess Co., N. Y., Calhoun's strength in, 58.
- Duval, William P., letter to Hunter, South and the compromise, commends Hunter, 115.
- Early, Rev. John, nomination of, 125.
- Early, William T., Va. senator, 296.
- Eastman, Charles G., Vt. delegate to Charleston, 307.
- Echols, —, conversation concerning Hunter, 243.
- Eddy, —, Morton's letter to, 82.
- Edmundson, Henry A., aid solicited, 135; aid solicited for Hunter, 179; political activity, 181; letter from, 211; attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Edwards, —, and Calhoun's candidacy, 41.
- Edwards, —, coal lands, 160; lawsuit, 279.
- Edwards, Thomas M., abolition documents distributed by, 292.
- Eggleston, Maj. James, grand nephew of, 135.
- Elder, Lord, quoted, 359.
- Elections, (1844) 72, (1856) 199-200, (1859) 273, (1860) 338.
- Elizabeth City, Va., Dem. district convention at, 191-194.
- Elk River, coal lands, 220.
- Ellsworth, Henry L., removal as com. of patents, 75.
- Elmore, —, of New Orleans, 78.
- Elmore, Franklin H., and S. C. movement, 69, 70; and Calhoun's candidacy, 74, 78.
- England, alliance with South proposed, 145; and the acquisition of Mexico, 266; impressions concerning the South in, 276. See also Great Britain.
- Europe, impressions concerning the South in, 275-276.
- Everett, Edward, letter to Hunter, asks protection from attacks while on tour through South, 222-224.
- Fairmont, Va., convention, 301.
- Farmville, Va., convention, 295.
- Faulkner, Charles J., political plans of, 213; alliance with Floyd and Wise, 226, 231.
- Fauquier, Va., delegates to Charleston, 296.
- Fearson, Joseph N., candidate for mayor of Georgetown, 134.
- Fillmore, Millard, policy of, 115; and Seward, 120; anti-Fillmore convention, 145; candidacy of, 198.
- Finch, —, mail agt., opinion of, 242.
- Fine, Judge John, election of, 43.
- Fink, John W., correspondence: (1852) from Hunter, latter declines to be considered for Pierce's cabinet, 152; to Hunter, urging latter for Pierce's cabinet, 152-153; (1857), latter's candidacy for reelection, 225.
- Finks, —, political information from, 224.
- Fir Points, Philadelphia, gamblers of, 300.
- Fisher, Elwood, letters to Hunter: (1850), situation in Ga. and Va., 119-120; situation in the South, 120.
- Fisher, George, letter to Hunter, suggests a national Democratic organ, 311-312.
- Fisher, M. W., delegate to Cincinnati convention, 194.
- Fisher, Redwood, and Calhoun, 78-79.
- Fisk, —, plan for Kanawha improvements, 178.
- Fitzhugh, —, Va., speech of, 127.
- Fitzhugh, George, letters to Hunter: (1839), Harrison and Van Buren, speakership, 30; speakership, Calhoun's candidacy, 30-31.
- Fitzhugh, Henry, letter to Hunter, sentiment for latter in Ohio, 307-308.
- Fitzpatrick, Benjamin, resolution signed by, 104.
- Flax, duty on machinery, 203-204.
- Fleet, Alexander, letter to Sutton, Hunter's affiliation with Democrats, 37-38.
- Florida, Indians, 143; election (1856), 199; delegates at Charleston convention, 320.
- Flournoy, Thomas S., nomination of, 163; support of, 208.
- Flournoy, William C., Va. delegate, 140.
- Floyd, Gov. John B., letter to Hunter, on sending free negroes to W. Indies, 120-121; attitude toward Hunter, 174, 178, 212, 242, 244, 250; influence at Baltimore convention, 184; political movements of, 207, 208, 224; relations with Wise, 217, 228-229; alliance with Wise and Faulkner, 226, 231; support of, 230; opinion of, 235.
- Floyd, Rush, influence of, 224; candidate for Va. senate, 229, 231.

- Foote, Henry S., proposed for com. against Wilmot proviso, 104; resolution signed by, 104; and Nashville convention, 111; resolution of, 130; Pierce, and 151.
 Ford, Worthington C., collection of Hunter Paper, suggested by, 12.
 Foreign relations, Pierce's policy concerning, 153-154.
 Forney, ———, contract signed by, 262.
 Forney, John W., contest, 179; newspaper of, 213, 216; on Kan. question, 225-226.
 Foster, Henry D., nominated gov. of Pa., 299.
 France, political conditions (1848), 93; settlement of military accounts in, 143; and S. Am. States, 182.
 Francis I., quoted, 106.
 Fredericksburg, Va., horse racing, 28.
 Free Soil party, and Washington Union, 96; Webster and, 111; opposition to, 145; opposition to Know-Nothing party, 170.
 Free-trade, Guthrie's policy, 205.
 Free-trade party, attempt to modify tariff, 184.
 Frémont, John C., influence of, 198; political activity for, 307.
 Fronthill, Hunter's home, 10.
 Fugitive slave law, Pierce's attitude toward, 151; modification of, 199; repeal urged, 286.
 Funsten, ———, Va. delegate to Charleston, 304.
 Fuqua, Col., introduction to, 124.
 Gagern, Heinrich W. A., pres. German parliament, 92, 93.
 Gallaher, Young, and Co., Fredericksburg, Va., 169.
 Garland, Brig.-Gen. John, proposed as head of Army, 267.
 Garnett, ———, of Westmoreland, Va., attitude of, 127.
 Garnett, Col., Norfolk, 157.
 Garnett, Dr., position of, 156; supports Pryor for editor, 202; mentioned, 275.
 Garnett, Miss Fenton, 28.
 Garnett, Henry T., proposed delegate to Charleston, 296.
 Garnett, James M., influence of, 7.
     Letters to Hunter: (1833), condemning partisan politics, 28-30; (1841), national agricultural soc., partisan politics, 36.
 Garnett, M., Richmond Whig, 126.
 Garnett, Muscoe R. H., influence of, 7; Hunter's nephew, 110, 126, 270; invitation to address Young Men's Democratic Club, 166; and Kanawha improvements, 176; message concerning slave stealing, 191; and naturalization laws, 201; election of, 201, 203; candidacy of, 208; and public printing, 229; opinion on contest for Speaker, 254.
     Correspondence: To Hunter, (1856), Kanawha improvements, plans for indorsing Hunter for presidency, 178-179; from Jno. Seddon (1857), 251; from T. S. Bocoek (1859), 273.
 Garnett, Richard B., letter to Hunter, asking promotions in Army for friends, 94-95.
 Garnett, Robert S., influence of, 7.
     Letters to Hunter: (1847), urges promotion in Army, congressional medal, Scott and Taylor, 85-86; (1850), desires promotion in Army, 118-119; (1853), opposes Shields as chairman of military com., 157; (1855), why an army officer should not marry, 166-168; (1856), opposed to Indian Wars, 188-189; (1858), appointment of brig.-gen., organization of the Army, 266-269.
 Garnett, Theodore S., paper on Hunter, 12.
 Gatewood, ———, political attitude, 225.
 Gauley River, coal on, 176.
 General Land Office, warrants (1860), 336.
 George, Capt., and Calhoun's candidacy, 43.
 Georgetown, D. C., proposed retrocession to Md., 134.
 Georgia, political situation, (1842) 49, (1850) 119, (1852) 148, 151, (1857) 212, 213; Calhoun's strength in 61; and the compromise measures, 120; and Charleston convention, 322.
 Georgian Bay, canal via, 170.
 Gerhard, Benjamin, and Hunter's speech, 297-298.
 Geyer, Henry S., and the retrocession of Georgetown, 134.
 Giddings, Joshua R., and Mexican War, 105.
 Gilbert, ———, inventor of floating dock, 51.
 Giles, ———, of Calhoun com., Richmond, 61.
 Gilmer, Thomas W., letter to Hunter, return to party principles, 33-34.
 Glover, Thomas A., letter to Hunter, invitation to address Young Men's Democratic Club, 165-166.
 Godwin, ———, 40.
 Goode, John, Jr., political attitude of, 289.
 Goode, William O., correspondence lost, 12; candidacy, 64; letter from Hunter, 136; and vice presidency, 138; inquiry concerning Va. banks, 175; absence from Congress, 196; death of, 274.
     Letters to Hunter: (1850), requesting copies of speeches, commending Webster and Calhoun, 108-110; Webster's speech, Nashville convention, compromise measures, 110-112; Seward's speech, Nashville convention, Calif. question, 112-113; (1856), Va. favorable to latter for presidency, 179-180; (1857), latter's Lexington speech, Walker and Kan., 210; latter's candidacy for reelection, 215-216.
 Gordon, ———, influence of, 61; political opinion of, 289.
 Gordon, William F., letter to Hunter, Nashville convention, attitude of the South, 113-114.
 Graham, ———, and Calhoun's candidacy, 43.
 Graham, Dr., Rockbridge, Va., support of Hunter, 214.
 Grandin, W., letter to Hunter, predicts Democratic victory, 199-200.
 Great Britain, Central Am. interests, 182-183; attitude toward Miranda's expedition, 183. See also England.
 Greeley, Horace, and the tariff, 185; opposition to Everett, 223; influence of, 311.
 Green, ———, Albemarle, political influence of, 296.
 Greenhow, Robert, of Calhoun com., 61, 64; appointment sought for, 66.
 Griffith, Commonwealth ex., 8.
 Guthrie, James, and the tariff, 185, 205; and the presidency, 272, 322; political opinion of, 321.
 Guyer, ———, investigation by, 130.
 Gwin, William McK., opposition to, 159.
 Haiti, negro rule in, 354.
 Hale, John P., Hunter's opposition to, 280.
 Hamilton, Alexander, 55.
 Hamilton, James, letter from Calhoun, 55; and Calhoun, 55, 78.
 Hamlin, Hannibal, candidacy of, 332.
 Hammond, J. H., mentioned, 290.
 Hampton Roads, peace conference, 9-10.

- Hansford, —, coal tracts, 160.
 Harmon, G., opinion of, 317.
 Harney, Brig.-Gen. William S., proposed as head of Army, 267.
 Harper's Ferry, Brown's raid, 273, 277, 281-283, 288, 293, 294, 338.
 Harris, John T., letter from Hunter, 245; attitude in speakership contest, 274; influence of, 296.
 Harris, M. H., letter from Hunter, 245.
 Harris, William A., editor Spectator, 72; of Washington Union, 224.
 Harrison, Gessner, letter to Hunter; will retire from Univ. of Va. to open school for boys, 177-178.
 Harrison, William H., candidacy, 30, 31, 34-35.
 Hart, B. S., letter to Hunter, Calhoun party in N. Y., 39.
 Hart, E. G. B., and Calhoun's candidacy, 39n., 41, 42, 43, 58, 59-60; treas. Calhoun com., 47, 48, 65, appointment as inspector sought by, 52; political activity, 52.
Letters to Hunter: (1842), political situation in N. Y., difficulties in way of supporting Calhoun, 49-51; (1843), Calhoun's prospects in N. Y., 58.
 Harvie, —, of Petersburg, Va., delegate to Charleston, 317.
 Harvie, Dr., letters sent by, 217.
 Harvie, John, son of Lewis, appointment to West Point, 134-135.
 Harvie, Col. John, record of, 135.
 Harvie, Lewis E., relations with Hunter, 8, 9, 11, 179, 180, 295; story concerning, 74; conferences with, 272, 286, 287.
Correspondence: destroyed, 12;—To Hunter (1852), appointment of son to West Point, 134-135; (1855), political situation in Va., 161, 162-163; (1856), urges latter to abandon thought of presidency and to head Southern party, 197; urges latter to remain in Senate, 202-204; (1857), Buchanan administration, 203; Va. political situation, 220-222; latter's candidacy for reelection, 231-232, 241-242; makes corrections in former letter, 242-243; (1859), Brown's raid, political situation, 272-273; (1860), Wise and Hunter's sentiment in Va., 288-289.—From Hunter, (1857), 217, (1876), concerning a proposed Life of Calhoun, 365-366.
 Haymond, —, of Va. legislature, support of Hunter, 214.
 Haysne, Charles G., letter to Hunter, sketch of latter in N. Y. Leader, 351-353.
 Heart, John, publisher of the Spectator, 62.
 Hecker, Lea, and Co., 203.
 Heiss, John P., and Washington Globe, 96.
 Henderson Democrat, proposes Hunter for presidency, 302, 303.
 Henry, Thomas, letter to Hunter, committee appointments, 31.
 Hepburn, Col., N. Y., 50.
 Hibbard, Harry, and charges against Pierce, 146.
 Hill, —, coal lands, 160, 279-280.
 Hill, N. B., letter to Hunter, Wise in Richmond, invites Hunter, 297.
 Hill, S. T., of Portsmouth, 33.
 Hillard, George S., ed. Boston Courier, 254.
 Hitchcock, Dr. and Mrs., 95.
 Hoge, John B., opinion of, 211; letter to Hunter, Richmond convention, Wise's popularity, Hunter's speech, 292-294; Va. delegate to Charleston, 303, 304, 315, 316.
 Holladay, Alexander R., aid solicited, 135.
 Holleman, Joel, 33.
 Holmes, A. G., letter to Hunter, importance of protection to labor, 312-313.
 Holmes, Isaac E., and the S. C. movement, 70; invitation to, 133; letter to Hunter, urges Southern candidate for pres., 164-165; illness of wife, 165, 182; letter to A. P. Butler, opposition of Rhett, Walker's expedition, 182-183.
 Holy Alliance, and Spain, 183.
 Homestead bill, 148.
 Hope, —, Hampton, Va., sec. district convention, 192.
 Hopkins, George W., political attitude of, 126; support of Hunter, 231; and the contest for Speaker, 254.
 Houston, George S., and the tariff, 184; and the Cincinnati convention, 196.
 Houston, Samuel, and the presidency, 332.
 Hubbard, Col., and Clay, 318.
 Hubbard, Edmund W., letter to Hunter, change in coinage, opposition to Cass, 140-142.
 Hubbard, —, Va., at Charleston convention, 327.
 Hubbard, Judge, Jefferson Co., N. Y., letter read by, 277.
 Hughes, —, of Richmond Examiner, attitude toward Hunter, 178, 212, 234, 242; political opinion of, 218, 231; and consolidation of Richmond papers, 243.
 Hughes, Rt. Rev. John, 40.
 Humphreys, —, of commission to N. Y., 51.
 Hunter, James, letters to R. M. T. Hunter; (1854), land and coal interests on Kanawha River, 159-160; (1855), agency for the Barings, 163; Kanawha Coal Co., 172; Kanawha coal and timber interests, 176-177; (1857), Kanawha lands, 220.
 Hunter, Martha T., Memoir of R. M. T. Hunter, 12.
 Hunter, P. Stephen, acknowledgment to, 12.
 Hunter, Robert M. T., biog. sketch, 7-10; political career, 7-10; elected Speaker, 8, 30-31, 352; published sketches of, 12; calendar of letters and papers heretofore printed, 13-14; calendar of letters here printed, 15-25; relations with, Wise, 37, 352; and Calhoun's candidacy, 45, 48; illness of wife, 48; candidacy for Senate, 74; pamphlet suggested, 78; elected to Senate, 83-84, 85, 352; proposed for com. against Wilmot proviso, 104; resolution signed by, 104; speech on Austrian question, 108; speech of 112; reelection to Senate, 131-132, 134-135, 171, 352; and vice presidency, 138; proposed for Pierce's cabinet, 150, 151, 152-153; and the presidency, 150, 153, 175, 178-180, 182, 183, 189-195, 197, 203, 273, 280, 284, 286-287, 289, 295, 301, 303-318 passim, 322, 325-327, 330, 335, 352; bill concerning Va. land bounties, 154-155; land and coal interests, 159, 169, 170, 171, 172, 176-177, 220; speech at Poughkeepsie, 199, 200; proposed for Buchanan's cabinet, 200, 201, 202, 203; speech at Lexington, 210, 214; candidacy for reelection, 212-221, 224, 225, 229-236, 241-242, 244, 250-253, 255; attitude toward Buchanan, 219-220, 224, 225, 230, 234, 236, 237-238, 240; and Kan. question, 225, 236, 237, 238-241, 243, 245-250, 253; publication of speeches proposed, 230; and land bill, 233, 234; letter on Randall's Life of Jefferson, 270-271; speech on South, 289, 290, 291, 293, 294, 297-299, 300, 307; secession at Charleston convention approved by, 328, 329-330; sketch of, in N. Y. Leader, 351-353; speech before the Conservative convention (1867), 353-359.

Correspondence [for calendar, see names of correspondents]: from unknown writer (1855), Va. banks prefer northern paper, 174; from unknown writer (1860), recommending coalition of Pa., Md., and Va., 336-337; to unknown writer (1843), Calhoun com. in Va., his strength in other States, proposed life of Calhoun, 60-62; from H. S. Acker (1860), 333; to Jas. Alexander (1857), 252; from W. M. Ambler (1860), 334; from D. R. Atchison (1855), 160; from G. Bailey (1860), 319; from A. D. Banks (1855) 171, (1857) 211, 229, 250; from J. S. Barbour, jr. (1857), 212, 214; from C. G. Baylor (1860), 310; from R. Baylor (1826), 27-28; from O. H. Berryman (1860), 329; from Asa Biggs (1860), 308; from W. P. Bocoock (1847) 84-85, (1851) 124; from T. S. Bocoock (1857) 210, (1860) telegram, 320; from Geo. Booker (1852) 144, 149 (1856) 200; from B. H. Brewster (1860), 299; from J. D. Bright (1854) 158, (1855) 168; from Jas. Broom (1843), 62; from Sir Henry L. Bulwer (1850), 119, 121; from J. G. Buret (1859), 271; from Wm. M. Burwell (1858), 262; from Calhoun (1842) 48, (1844) 72, (1845) 75 (2); from G. D. Camden (1860), 291; from G. D. Camden, jr. (1860), 297; from T. A. Cheney (1860), 335; from Howell Cobb (1857) 209, (1858) 261; from F. W. Coleman (1859), 280; from R. H. Coleman (1860), 286, 295; from R. K. Crallé (1850) 106, (1851) 128, (1857) 243; from G. H. Crosman (1852), 142; from W. W. Crump (1857), 227; from Jefferson Davis (1852), 147; from J. L. Dawson, (1855) 163, 168, 169, 170, (1858), 262; from Geo. Dennett (1860), 313; to B. B. Douglas (1869), 359; from J. W. Duncan (1852), 147; from C. W. C. Dunnington (1857), 213, 216, 224, 230, 235; from W. P. Duval (1850), 115; from Edw. Everett (1857), 222; from J. W. Fink, (1852) 152, (1857) 225; to J. W. Fink (1852), 152; from Elwood Fisher (1850), 119, 120; from Geo. Fisher (1860), 311; from Geo. Fitzhugh (1839), 30 (2); from H. Fitzhugh (1860), 307; from J. B. Floyd (1850), 120; from J. M. Garnett, (1838) 28, (1841) 36; from M. R. H. Garnett (1856), 178; from R. B. Garnett (1848), 94; from R. S. Garnett, (1847) 85, (1850) 118, (1853) 157, (1855) 166, (1856) 188, (1858) 266; from T. W. Gilmer (1840), 33; from Thos. A. Glover (1855), 165; from W. O. Goode, (1850) 108, 110, 112, (1856) 179, (1857) 210, 215; from W. F. Gordon (1850), 113; from W. Grandin (1856), 199; from Gessner Harrison (1856), 177; from B. S. Hart (1842), 39; from E. G. B. Hart, (1842) 49, (1843) 58; from L. E. Harvie, (1852) 134, (1855) 161, 162, (1856) 197, 202, (1857) 205, 220, 231, 241, 242, (1859) 272, (1860) 288; to L. E. Harvie (1876), 365; from Chas. G. Haysine (1861), 351; from Thos. Henry (1840), 31; from N. B. Hill (1860), 297; from J. B. Hoge (1860), 292; from A. G. Holmes (1860), 312; from I. E. Holmes (1855), 164; from E. W.

Hubard (1852), 140; from Jas. Hunter, (1854) 159, (1855) 163, 172, 176, (1857) 220; from Eppa Hunton (1858), 269; from J. F. Hutton (1843), 58, 59, 64; from H. V. Johnson (1852), 151; to H. V. Johnson (1852), 153; from J. M. Johnson (1860), 313; from Thos. ap C. Jones (1849), 96; from Thos. L. Kane (1860), 309, 319; from E. Kennan (1856), 180; from Wm. Lamb (1857), 219; to Wm. Lamb (1857), 219; from Jos. Lea (1857), 203; from S. F. Leake (1857), 236; to S. F. Leake (1857), 237, 252, 256; from Jno. Letcher, (1857) 215, (1859) 274, (1860) 317, 331; from Dixon H. Lewis (1845), 74; from Chas. Linsley (1860), 306; from J. A. Lowell (1860), 300; from Geo. W. Loyd (1860), 289; from McCullough and Co. (1854), 158; from J. H. McHenry (1850), 104; from W. F. McLean (1857), 254; from Wm. L. McPhink (1857), 232; from Francis Mallory, (1840) 31, (1856) 186, 189, 191, (1857) 205; from Chas. Mason, (1851) 126-127, (1856) 183, (1857) 255, (1860) 322; from D. H. Maury (1859), 279; to J. R. Micou and others (1860), 337; from F. Minor (1860), 332; from E. T. Montague, (1856) 196, (1857) 225; from Geo. W. Munford (1856), 201; from W. R. Nicholls (1852), 132; from T. E. Norris (1860), 302; from J. H. Nutting (1860), 292; from Wm. Old, jr., (1857) 217, 233, (1859) 278, 284, (1860) 285, 314, 325; from Wm. H. Oldham (1860), 301; from H. E. Orr (1857), 235; from J. A. Pearce (1856), 198; from Jno. Pettit (1856), 200; from F. W. Pickens (1859), 275; from R. A. Pryor (1856), 196; from R. B. Rhett (1844), 70; from Thos. Ritchie (1849), 96; from P. A. Roach (1858), 270; from R. Rowzee (1852), 145; to R. Rowzee (1852), 146; from F. G. Ruffin (1852), 149; from R. Rush (1852), 139; from C. W. Russell (1860), 325, 328, 329, 330; to G. N. Sanders (1851), 126, 127, 128; from Max. Schele de Vere (1848), 91; from J. A. Seoville, (1842) 39, 41, 51, 55, 57, (1843) 59; from J. A. Seddon, (1843) 63, (1844) 66, 67, 69, 72, (1848) 90, (1852) 131, 136, (1855) 172, (1859) 280; from Wooster Sherman (1859), 277; from a Southerner (1852), 145; from D. M. Stone (1856), 184; from Thos. D. Sumter (1860), 327; from R. Tansill (1860), 303; from H. A. Taylor (1840), 34; from L. W. Tazewell (1850), 115; from G. F. Thomson, (1851), 122, (1852) 135, (1856) 195; from Jacob Thompson (1860), 336; from Jno. R. Thompson (1850), 110; from J. B. Thornton, jr. (1841), 37; from H. C. Tiffey (1860), 331; from Jno. K. Tucker, (1851) 130, (1858) 269, (1860) 335; from Jno. Tyler, jr. (1847), 83; to S. T. Walker (1857), 245; telegram from L. Q. Washington (1860), 320; from S. Webster (1857), 254; from Wm. W. Wick (1860), 321, 323; from Jos. S. Wilson, (1860), 336; from W. H. Winder (1860), 290, 297, 318; from Henry A. Wise, (1847) 87, (1851) 124, (1852) 151, (1853) 156; from D. H. Wood (1857), 252; from C. L. Woodbury, (1856) 185, (1860) 314; from Wm. T. Yancey (1860), 294.

Hunton, Eppa, political opinion of, 236; letter to Hunter, loyalty of Jno. Letcher, 269-270; and Charleston delegates, 296.

Huron, Lake, canal project, 170.

Hutton, J. Francis, and Calhoun's candidacy, 397n., 41, 48; political activity, 52.

Letters to Hunter: (1843), Calhoun's prospects in N. Y., 58; Calhoun's strength in N. Y., influence of Gov. Bouck, proposals for aiding Calhoun, 59-60; Calhoun's prospects in N. Y., 64-65.

- Illinois, Calhoun's prospects in, 61; political situation (1858), 261; members of Congress and the speakership, 274; delegates to Charleston, 313, 314.
- Indiana, Calhoun's strength in, 60; political situation, (1854) 159, (1856) 199, (1857) 213, (1860) 321; election (1856), 199, 200; vote at Cincinnati convention, 213; members of Congress and speakership contest, 274; Democratic party in, 323-324.
- Indians, in Cal., 97; in Fla., 143; opposition to wars against, 188-189; protection in reservations, 319.
- Intervention, Hunter's opposition to, 148.
- Iowa, political situation (1854), 159; delegates to Charleston, 313.
- Irving, Charles, interview with, 178; opinion of, 242, 243; article in the Whig, 251.
- Irving, Harvey, political attitude of, 125.
- Irwin, —, defeated for gov. of Pa., 299.
- Iverson, Alfred, on Ga. situation, 212; speech in Senate, 278.
- Jackson, —, and Calhoun's candidacy, 43.
- Jackson, Andrew, criticism of, 36; fine imposed on, 133; praised by Cass, 142; loyalty to friends, 156; policy in appointments, 235.
- Jackson, William L., letter to F. W. Coleman, Hunter's reelection to Senate, 171; support of Wise, 301.
- Jamaica, proposal to send negroes to, 121, 122; negro rule in, 354.
- James, Charles T., and the tariff, 185, 186.
- Japanese, inquiry concerning, 331.
- Jefferson, Thomas, election of, 36; opinion concerning slavery, 270-271; Randall's Life, discussed, 270-271; and the Ky. resolutions, 341.
- Jenkins, Albert G., attitude in speakership contest 274; documents distributed by, 292.
- John of Austria, Archduke, proposed as ruler of Germany, 92.
- Johnson, —, of commission to N. Y., 51.
- Johnson, —, of Clarksburg, influence of, 301.
- Johnson, —, of Va. legislature, support of Hunter, 214.
- Johnson, Henry, proposed for com. against Wilmot proviso, 104.
- Johnson, Herschel V., resolution signed by, 104; letter to Hunter, election of Pierce, Hunter for the cabinet, 151; letter from Hunter, latter declines to be considered for Pierce's cabinet, foreign relations, 153-154.
- Johnson, John M., letter to Hunter, latter second choice of Douglas supporters, 313.
- Johnson, Gov. Joseph, message of, 132; homestead measure, 148.
- Johnson, Reverdy, political attitude of, 133.
- Johnson, Richard M., opposition to, 43; pres. candidacy (1844), 56, 57, 64.
- Joinville, François d'Orléans, prince de, pamphlet by, 139.
- Jones, —, of Va. legislature, political opinion of, 250.
- Jones, Gen., letters of recommendation to, 85, 119.
- Jones, Alexander, Va. delegate to Charleston, 296.
- Jones, John W., Maine delegate to Charleston, 301.
- Jones, John W., Va., political activity, 73-74; candidate for Senate (1847), 84.
- Jones, Thomas ap C., letter to Hunter, advantages of Bernecia over San Francisco as port of entry, 96-104.
- Journal of Commerce*, N. Y., article on the tariff, 185; letter on Brown raid in, 277; cited, 278.
- Judiciary, federal, powers under the Constitution, 342-343.
- Kanawha, coal lands 159-160, 172, 176-177, 220, 279-280.
- Kanawha Coal Co., organization of, 172; purchase of interest in, 176, 177; authorized to issue bonds, 178.
- Kanawha River, bill for improvements, 178.
- Kane, —, Pa., letters to, 70.
- Kane, Thomas L., letters to Hunter: (1860), possibility of Douglas delegates supporting Hunter, Pa. delegates, 309-310; suggests some Virginian to accompany Pa. delegation to Charleston, 319-320.
- Kansas, slavery question, 160-161, 201, 262-263; troubles in, 164; appointment of gov., 169; attitude of Md. toward, 199; Walker and, 210, 211, 213, 217, 225, 238-241; as political issue, 212; Hunter and, 214, 225, 236, 237, 238-241, 243, 245-250, 253. See also next entry.
- Kansas-Nebraska act, object of, 238, 239, 241; benefit to South, 249; sentiment in Mass., 254; debate on, 256; interpretation of, 321, 323.
- Keim, George M., and speakership, 32n.; and Calhoun's candidacy, 41.
- Kemper, —, Madison, Va., opposition to Hunter, 225.
- Kenna, —, Va., attitude toward Hunter, 178.
- Kennan, Edward, letter to Hunter, Va., political conditions, 180-181.
- Kennedy, —, Va., influence of, 125.
- Kennedy, John P., political attitude of, 133.
- Kennon, Capt., of commission to N. Y., 51.
- Kentucky, slavery in, 105; political situation (1856), 195; flax, 203, 204.
- Kentucky resolutions, 341-342.
- Keon, —, Wise supporter, 230.
- Kidwell, Charles, political influence, 181.
- Kidwell, Zedekiah, on Va. situation, 212; political opinion of, 253.
- Kindred, —, Southampton, Va., political opinion, 215.
- King, William R., resolution signed by, 104; vice-pres. candidacy, 148.
- Knownothing party, opposition to, 162, 218; nominations, 162-163; defeat in Va., 164; influence of, 198; support in Md., 199; support of Wise, 208; patronage, 231.
- Koonts, —, of Wheeling, support of Buchanan, 181.
- Kossuth, Lajos, visit to U. S., 141.
- Kramer, John, defeat of, 43.
- Kunkel, Jacob M., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Labor, protection of, 312-313; conditions under secession discussed, 346-347.
- Lamar, Lucius Q. C., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Lamartine, on French republic, 93.
- Lamb, —, ed. Boston Courier, 254.

- Lamb, William, letter to Hunter, latter's attitude toward Buchanan, 219; letter from Hunter, attitude toward Buchanan, 219-220.
- Land bill, Hunter and, 233, 234.
- Land bounties, Va., 151-155.
- Lands, public, estimate of revenue (1858), 261.
- Lane, Joseph., candidacy for vice-pres., 9; and presidency (1860), 272, 322; Pa. delegate for, 300.
- Lawrence, Stone, and Co., 185.
- Lawrence, Abbott, U. S. minister to Gt. Brit., on gold production, 139.
- Layne, ———, Va., senator from Roanoke, 217.
- Lea, Joseph, letter to Hunter, asks for refund of duties on flax machinery, tariff, 203-205.
- Leake, Shelton F., political opinion of, 241; letter from Hunter referred to, 245, 249, 252; publication of letter from, 252; political support of, 256, 289; appointment of brother, 262; attitude in speakership contest, 274; and Charleston delegates, 296; urged to go to Charlottesville, 297.
- Correspondence:* To Hunter (1857), Kan. question, 236; from Hunter (1857), latter's position on Kan. question, attitude toward Buchanan, 237-241; from Hunter, publication of Leake's letter, 252; from Hunter (1857), power of Congress to acquire and govern territory, 256-261.
- Lee, ———, of Va. legislature political attitude of, 221, 250.
- Lee, Col., proposed for brig.-gen., 267; promotion of, 269.
- Lee, Judge, recommendation of, 335.
- Lee, Baker P., and the Southern Statesman, 255.
- Le Grand, John C., candidacy of, 132, 133.
- Leonard, Moses G., candidacy in N. Y., 50; and Calhoun's candidacy, 51.
- Letcher, John, letter concerning Hunter, 211; influence of, 217, 296; and public printing, 229; and the contest for Speaker, 254; loyalty to Hunter, 269-270; message as gov., 285-286; services offered to, 305.
- Letters to Hunter:* (1857), latter's candidacy for reelection, 215; (1859), death of his son, secession, 274-275; (1860), Va. delegates, Wise delegates prefer Douglas to Hunter, 317-318; the Democratic situation, 331-332.
- Lewis, Arthur, and Kanawha coal lands, 176.
- Lewis, Dixon H., vote for Speaker, 32; and Calhoun's candidacy, 40, 41, 44, 45, 48, 52; and Delevan, 43; mentioned, 58, 59; acquaintance with Coombs 59; letter to Hunter, Texas question, Hunter's candidacy for Senate, 74.
- Lexington, Va., Hunter's speech at, 210, 214.
- Lexington Star*, support for Hunter, 179.
- Lincoln, Abraham, at peace conference, 9; pres. candidacy of, 332; election of and secession, 344.
- Linsley, Charles, letter to Hunter, political conditions in Vt., 306-307.
- Lisboa, Miquel M., Brazilian minister to U. S., 88, 89.
- Literary Messenger.* See Southern Literary Messenger.
- Lloyd, James, of Mass., 27.
- Lomax, ———, of Univ. of Va., 27, 28.
- Lott, ———, N. Y., candidate for State senate, 40.
- Louisiana, Calhoun's strength in, 61; Douglas sentiment in, 279.
- Louisville, Ky., newspapers, 159.
- Loving, ———, clerk of circuit court, Va., 181.
- Lowe, Gov. Enoch L., message of, 132.
- Lowell, Joshua A., letter to Hunter, Democratic convention in Maine, 300-301.
- Loyall, George, resignation as Navy agt., 33; influence of, 190; opposition to, 208.
- Loyd, ———, of Richmond Examiner, 242.
- Loyd, George W., letter to Hunter, congratulates latter on speech, 289-290.
- Lyle, ———, letter in behalf of, 158.
- Lynn, Seymour, attitude of, 216; support of Hunter, 236.
- Lyons, ———, attitude of, 73.
- Lyons, ———, opposition to Douglas, 316, 317; at Richmond convention, 317.
- Lyons, James, proposed for Supreme Court, 332.
- McCullough and Co., letter to Hunter, duties on Eng. galvanized tin, 158.
- McClean, ———, mentioned, 209.
- McDonald, Gov. Charles J., suggested for Pierce's cabinet, 149.
- McDonough, ———, political opinion of, 242.
- McDowell, James, Va., and contest for Senate (1847), 84.
- McDuffie, George, correspondence with, 41n.
- Mackay, ———, and Bishop Hughes, 40.
- McKeon, John, candidacy in N. Y., 50.
- Mellenry, John H., letter to Hunter, causes of Mexican War, slavery in Ky., 104-103.
- McKenny, ———, candidate for Va. senate, 208.
- McKibber, ———, Pa., delegate to Charleston, 310.
- McLain, ———, European trip of, 275-276.
- Maclay, Lieut. Robert P., promotion asked for, 95.
- Maclay, William B., Calhoun man in N. Y., 42; candidacy, 44, 50.
- McLean, John, and presidency (1860), 321.
- McLean, William F., letter to Hunter, sends prospectus of new journal, Hunter's candidacy, 254-255.
- McPhink, William L., letter to Hunter, regulation of the currency, 232-233.
- McRae, John J., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- McRean, ———, candidacy in N. Y., 44.
- McRoberts, Samuel, correspondence with, 41n.
- Madison, James, Hunter compared with, 140; resolutions drawn by, 341; report to Va. assembly, 342-343.
- Madisonian*, Washington, D. C., 72, 159.
- Maine, Calhoun's organization in, 54; delegates to Charleston, 272, 300-301.
- Mallory, Charles K., influence of, 191; sec. district convention, 192.
- Mallory, Francis, support of Hunter, 178-179; appointment sought for son, 187.
- Letters to Hunter:* (1840), speakership, Rhett's ambition, Calhoun's candidacy, asks favor for friend, 31-33; (1856), Buchanan and Wis in Va., 186-188; plans for aiding latter for presidency, 189-191; Dem. district convention, 191-194; (1857), rivalry between latter and Wise, 205-209.
- Mann, Col. A. Dudley; in Germany, 93; line of steamers, 201.
- Manry, ———, N. Y., and Calhoun's candidacy, 59.
- Manry, John W., land and coal interests, 159, 160.
- Manry, R. H., and Kanawha coal lands, 159, 160; Richmond agt. of Barings, 163.

- Mansfield, Col. Joseph K. F., proposed for brig-gen., 267.
- Manufactures, monopoly in East, 337.
- Marcey, William L., mentioned for presidency, 141; article by brother-in-law of, 271.
- Marshall, John, decision concerning D. C., 258.
- Martin, Elbert S., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Martin, John, influence of, 181.
- Martz, Lola, actress, 134.
- Maryland, Calhoun's strength in, 61; conditions in (1852), 132-134; action of legislature on S. C. communication, 290-291; digest of laws, 302; proposed coalition with Va. and Pa., 337.
- Mason, Charles, letters to Hunter: (1851), concerning a southern convention, 126-127; (1856), conduct of Wise, 183-184; (1857), commends latter's position, 255-256; (1860), proceedings of the Charleston convention, 322-323.
- Mason, George, reference to, 114n.
- Mason, James M., mentioned, 33, 109, 113, 142, 180; letter from R. Rush, 106; letter from Goode, 110; reference to, 114n; speeches of, 120, 132; position on Foote's resolution, 130; letter to, on military appointment, 134; reelection of, 171; Floyd's opposition to, 174; appreciation of, 182; absence of, 196; invitation to Buchanan meeting, 196; election to Senate, 251; letter from Sherrard concerning Hunter, 303; influence of, 303-304.
- Mason, John Y., and vice presidency, 138.
- Massachusetts, Calhoun's organization in, 54; sentiment on Kan.-Neb. bill, 254.
- Massie, —, Rockbridge, Va., political opinion of, 296.
- Maury, Dabney H., letter to Hunter, Kanawha coal lands, 279-280.
- May, Henry, candidate for U. S. Senate, 132.
- Mayo, —, political work of, 221.
- Meade, Richard K., aid solicited, 135, 216; and vice presidency, 138; opinion of Banks, 179; support of Hunter, 180; delegate to Cincinnati convention, 304.
- Medary, road from Superior, 262.
- Meigs, Capt., position offered by, 162.
- Melvin, —, applicant for position, 157.
- Menston, —, abolition documents distributed by, 292.
- Meredith, Judge, court held for, 287.
- Meredith, William M., and Hunter's speech, 297-298.
- Merrick, —, of Treas. Dept., resignation of, 209, 230.
- Methodists, attitude toward slavery, 291-292, 297.
- Mexican War, Am. operations, 86; services in, 94-95; causes of, 105.
- Mexico, U. S. and, 182-183, 285; acquisition of, proposed, 263-266.
- Michigan, Calhoun's strength in, 61.
- Micou, James R., letter from Hunter, the state of public affairs, 337-351.
- Miles, William P., telegram from T. S. Bocoock, 320; and Life of Calhoun, 366.
- Millie Lace, road from Superior, 262.
- Millson, John S., aid solicited, 135; political attitude of, 188; attitude in speakership contest, 274; Minnesota, Neill's History of, 302.
- Minor, —, editor, 69.
- Minor, Franklin, letter to Hunter, recommending W. J. Robertson for Supreme Court, 332-333.
- Miranda, Francisco de, expedition, 183.
- Mississippi, political situation (1842), 49; Calhoun's strength in, 61; attitude of newspapers, 120; delegates at Charleston convention, 320.
- Missouri, slavery, 161; members of Congress and speakership contest, 274.
- Missouri compromise, Buchanan's opinion, 189, repeal of, 238.
- Mitchell, —, ed. St. Louis Intelligence, 169, 170.
- Molino del Rey, battle at, 95.
- Monroe doctrine, Gt. Brit. and, 183.
- Montague, Erastus T., support of Hunter, 224, 230; political opinion of, 231.
- Letters to Hunter*: (1856), the Cincinnati convention, 196; (1860), Hunter's candidacy for reelection, Va. politics, Cobb and the presidency, 225-227.
- Montague, Lieut.-Gov. Robert L., at the Richmond convention, 295.
- Monterey, Calif., as port of entry, 102.
- Montgomery, —, Pa., delegate to Charleston, 299.
- Moore, Ely, candidacy in N. Y., 44, 50.
- Moore, Sydenham, attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Moore and Robbins, Superior, Wis., contract for road given to, 262.
- Morey, —, instructions, 105.
- Morrell, —, political attitude, 42; and Calhoun's candidacy, 43; and Barbour, 60.
- Morrill, Justin S., tariff bill, 312.
- Morris, B. W., coal lands, 160.
- Morris, Edmund T., and Kanawha Coal Co., 172; chairman of convention, 296.
- Morris, Isaac N., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Morris, John, and Kanawha coal lands, 176.
- Mortimer, —, of Va. legislature, support of Hunter, 214.
- Morton, Marcus, letter to Calhoun, collectors' ip of port of Boston, disavowing abolition and nativism, 79-83.
- Mosquito territory, protectorate, 182.
- Mount Vernon, Va., association for purchase of, 222, 223.
- Munford, George W., letter to Hunter, proposes latter for Buchanan's cabinet, 201-202; work on the Enquirer, 251.
- Murphy, Henry C., candidate for Congress, 40, 41, 50; and Calhoun's candidacy, 51-52.
- Nash and Woodh use, publishing firm, 129, 130.
- Nashville convention, probable attitude of, 109; Va. representation, 111; work of, 113-114; and Pierce's candidacy, 149.
- National Intelligencer*, article of, 165; cited, 214; influence with Buchanan, 236; Hunter's letter on Kan. question approved by, 253.
- Naturalization, Morton's views on, 82-83; laws, 201.
- Navy, U. S., retired list, 268.
- Neals, —, nomination of, 163.
- Nebraska. See Kansas-Nebraska act.
- Neeson, James, delegate. 181 support of Pierce, 195; defeated as delegate to Charleston, 301.
- Negroes, proposed colonization in British W. Indies, 119, 120-122; captured, return to Africa, 336, suffrage, 353-354, 361, 363; position after emancipation discussed, 353-3 6. See also Slavery.

- Nell, Rev. E. D., History of Minn., 302.
 Nelson, Dr., Maysville, Ky., 94.
 Nelson, Miss, R. S. Garnett's proposed marriage to, 167.
 Nelson, Lieut. A. D., promotion asked for, 94-95.
 New England, Calhoun's prospects in, 61; advantages of cotton markets, 347.
 New Hampshire, Calhoun's organization in, 54.
 New Jersey, Democratic party of, 333.
 New Mexico, situation, 114, 115; enlargement of, 117.
 New Orleans, mail route to Washington, 264; organization for Hunter, 310-311.
New Orleans Courier, 120.
 Newton, —, and Superior lands, 169, 170, 171.
 Newton, —, and Beale-Brockenbrough quarrel, 232.
 Newton, —, of Westmoreland, Va., attitude of, 127.
 Newton, Thomas, vote on Texas question, 74.
 Newton, William B., conference with, 286, 287.
 New York, election, (1842) 51, (1856) 200, (1858) 269; political importance, 53; Van Buren's influence in, 57; Calhoun's prospects in, 61; political situation (1855), 165-166; members of Congress and speakership contest, 274; Hunter's strength in, 313; action of delegates at Charleston, 320.
 New York City, Calhoun's strength in, 60; bonded warehouses in, 136; anti-Fillmore convention, 145; customs receipts, 261; route to San Francisco, 264; Southern sympathy in, 277; Hunter's strength in, 313; manufacturing strength, 337.
New York Daily News, 199.
New York Herald, 43, 128, 145; and election of 1856, 200; influence with Buchanan, 236.
New York Leader, sketch of Hunter in, 351-353.
New York Tribune, influence among Republicans, 311.
 Nicaragua, Walker's expedition, 182.
 Nicholls, W. R., letter to Hunter, political conditions in Md., 132-134.
 Nicholson, James B., and Calhoun's candidacy, 40.
 Norfolk, Va., delegates to Charleston, 296; commercial position of, 337.
Norfolk News, sale of, 255.
 Norris, John, deed drawn by, 302.
 Norris, Moses, Jr., and charges against Pierce, 146.
 Norris, T. E., letter to Hunter, sends newspaper proposing latter for presidency, 302-303.
 North, Francis, lord, attitude toward U. S., 341.
 North Bridgewater, Mass., postmaster for, 82.
 North Carolina, political situation (1842), 49; Calhoun's strength in, 61.
 Nutting, John H., letter to Hunter, requests documents, 292.
 O'Connor, Charles, support of Hunter, 352.
 Ohio, political importance, 53; Cass's influence in, 57; and the Cincinnati Convention, 195; election (1856), 199; political situation (1856), 199; flax, 203; members of Congress and the speakership, 274; sentiment for Hunter in, 307-308; delegates to Charleston, 330.
 Old, William, Jr., support of Hunter, 198, 221, 222; illness of 273; proposed visit to Washington, 289.
Letters to Hunter; (1857), latter's candidacy for reelection, 217-219; land bill, Senate contest, 233-234; (1859), Wise and the Jno. Brown raid, urges Hunter to speak on the state of the Union, 278-279; Buchanan and renomination, political affairs, 284-285; (1860), Gov. Letcher's message, 285-286; Va. delegates to Charleston, sentiment in Va., 314-316; Va. and Douglas, 325.
 Old Dominion Co., sale of lands, 178.
 Oldham, William H., political opinion of, 220; letter to Hunter, Fairmont convention, 301.
On-ka-hy-e, vessel, slaver captured by, 329.
 Ontario, Lake, canal project, 170.
 Oregon, emigrants to Calif., 97.
 Oregon question, Polk's policy, 75; Calhoun on, 79.
 Orr, Henry, E., letter to Hunter, contest for Senate, 235.
 Orr, James L., support of Buchanan, 211; candidate for Speaker, 253.
 Ould, —, Georgetown, 133, 134.
 Owen, Robert D., letter from, 60.
 Pacific Railroad, Buchanan's letter on, 202.
 Palmer, —, of the Winchester Virginian, support of Hunter, 305.
 Parker, —, appointment sought for, 75.
 Parkersburg, Va., delegates to Charleston, 301.
 Parsons, —, Va. delegate to Charleston, 301.
 Parsons bill, 211.
 Patton, —, and Knownothing party, 162, 163.
 Paxton, —, of Rockbridge, political opinion of, 250, 286, 289; support of, 317.
 Pearce, James A., probable successor of, 132; letter to Hunter, political survey, 198-199.
 Peaslee, Charles H., and charges against Pierce, 146.
 Pedro II, of Brazil, birthday celebration, 87.
 Pendleton, Albert, political opinion of, 229, 230, 242.
 Pendleton, George H., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
 Pennington, William S., as Speaker, 290; and Broad-Seal controversy, 351.
 Pennsylvania, political importance, 53; Buchanan's influence in, 57; Calhoun's prospects in, 61; political dissensions, 180; success of Democrats in, 199; election (1856), 199, 200; flax, 203; political situation (1858), 261; members of Congress and speakership contest, 274; tax decision of supreme court, 288; delegates to Charleston, 299-300, 310, 319-320; position of Democratic party in, 333-334; proposed coalition with Va. and Md., 337.
Pennsylvanian, articles in, 290.
 Perkins, Judge, support of Hunter, 229-230; engagement of, 230.
 Petersburg, Va., convention, 64; political meeting at, 180; delegates to Charleston, 317.
 Pettengill Co., S. M., letter to Jno. T. Russell, proposing Hunter for presidency, 175.
 Pettit, John, letter to Hunter; Democratic victory in Ind., 200.
 Phelps, John S., candidate for Speaker, 274.
 Philadelphia, Southern sympathy in, 277; commercial position of, 337.
 Phillips, —, Pa. delegate to Charleston, 300; influence of, 300.
 Phillips, Wendell, opposition to Everett, 223.
 Phillips, Col. William F., political information from, 224; removal of, 225, 226, 230, 235.
 Pickens, Francis W., and speakership, 30, 32n.; influence sought, 33; address, 41; and Calhoun's candidacy, 45, 48; letter to Hunter, erroneous impressions in Europe concerning the South, urges a convention for redressing grievances, 275-277.

- Pierce, Franklin, Morton and, 80; charges of abolitionism against, 145-147; pres. candidacy of, (1852), 148, 150, (1856), 187, 195; cabinet proposals, 149, 150, 151, 152-153; policy of, 151, 153-154; federal patronage, 156; and Hunter's candidacy, 178; resolutions favoring, 180; indorsement of, 190; opposition in Va., 190, 205; in Boston, 254; vacancies in Army filled by, 268.
- Pinkney, William, home of, 133.
- Polk, James K., and Van Buren, 49; candidacy (1844), 72; policy of, 73; cabinet, 75, 76; on Oregon question, 79; Democratic strength under, 313.
- Porter, Edmund I., introduction to Hunter, 57-58.
- Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Hunter's speech at, 199, 200.
- Powell, Alfred, nomination of delegate withdrawn by, 304.
- Powell, Paulus, support of Hunter, 221, 289; political opinion of, 226, 229, 231; proposed delegate to Charleston, 296, 297.
- Pratt, Thomas G., successor to, 132; election as gov. of Md., 132-133.
- Pruyn, John V. L., trip proposed by, 271.
- Pryor, Roger, A., letter to Hunter, invitation to Buchanan meeting, 196; proposed as editor, 202, 203; as editor, 205, 212; policy of, 215; and the Kan. controversy, 217; influence of, 218; absence of, 221; unfriendly attitude toward Everett, 223, 224; support of Hunter, 231; and the Enquirer, 234; and the public printing, 251; relations with Wise, 251; attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Pugh, George E., relief bill postponed by, 329.
- Pulaski, Fort, Hunter in, 10.
- Randall, Henry S., Life of Jefferson discussed, 270-271.
- Randolph, ———, Va., and biog. of Calhoun, 61.
- Randolph, John, conduct, 27; position of, 148.
- Recorder, Irvin's article in, 251.
- Renold, ———, of Va. legislature, political opinion of, 250.
- Revell, ———, applicant for surveyor, 157.
- Rhett, Robert B., vote for speaker, 32; departure from N. Y., 50; and Calhoun's candidacy, 52; pamphlet by, 61; activity of, 69; letter to Hunter, situation in S. C., 70-71; invitation to, 133; opposition to Hunter, 182; leadership of, 332.
- Rice, ———, land interests, 159; contract to be signed by, 262.
- Richardson, ———, support of Hunter, 221.
- Richmond, Va., Calhoun com. in, 61; Democratic papers in, 161; Buchanan ratification meeting, 195; delegates to Charleston, 296.
- Richmond convention (1844), plans for, 61; (1860), Va. delegates, 292, 294, 295; S. C. delegates, 327, 332.
- Richmond Co., N. Y., appointments for, 60.
- Richmond Enquirer*, attitude of, 63, 218, 221; call for meeting in, 125; support of Wise, 161, 294; support of Banks, 172; opposition to Hunter, 211, 217, 225, 226, 227, 229, 235, 241, 250, 251, 252, 253, 255; controversy with Richmond South, 215, 231; attacks upon, 234; and Kan. question, 237; and the Examiner, 242, 243; incognito editor of, 251; and the speakership contest, 273; inquiry to, 336; Hunter letters reprinted from, 337, 359.
- Richmond Examiner*, support of Banks, 172; attitude of, 174, 218, 285; influence for Hunter, 178; support of Forney, 179; opposition to Hunter, 211, 212; Hunter letters reprinted from, 237, 245; and Enquirer, 242, 243; and the public printing, 251; and the speakership contest, 273; extracts published in, 278; and Southern sentiment, 279; and Douglas, 316; Benjamin's speech in, 332.
- Richmond South*, controversy with Enquirer, 215, 231; attack on Everett in, 223.
- Richmond Whig*, article by Irvin in, 251; inquiry to 336; speech reprinted from, 353.
- Riddle, George R., memorial to, 158.
- Riely, ———, Pa. delegate to Charleston, 299.
- Ritchie, James S., letter to J. C. Breckinridge, urges payment of taxes on Superior lands, 287-288.
- Ritchie, Thomas, Va., home of, 7; and Calhoun's candidacy, 8, 62, 63, 89; political attitude of, 37, 72, 124; cited, 67; letter from, 69; letter to Hunter, public printing, 96; opposition for public printing, 229.
- Rives, Francis E., political influence of, 190; and speakership contest, 351.
- Rives, John C., and Co., and public printing, 96.
- Roach, Phillip A., letter to Hunter, balance of trade, currency, 270.
- Roane, Spencer, home of, 7.
- Robbins, of Moore and Robbins, 262.
- Robbins, John, Jr., candidate for mayor of Phila., 320.
- Robertson, ———, land interests, 159.
- Robertson, Lieut. B. W., desires promotion, 162.
- Robertson, George H., seeks appointment, 33.
- Robertson, William J., recommended for Supreme Court, 333, 334, 335.
- Robinson, ———, suggested for public printing, 229.
- Robinson, Dr., candidate for Va. Senate, 208.
- Rockingham, Va., Democratic meeting in, 245; resolutions passed at, 256; delegates to Charleston, 296.
- Rockingham Co., Va., situation in, 119.
- Rockingham Register*, and public printing, 229.
- Roenne, Francis L., baron von, head of German constitutional com., 93.
- Rose Hill Academy, 7.
- Roosevelt, James I., N. Y., 50.
- Roupeau, Com., salute refused by, 87.
- Rowzee, Richard, letter to Hunter, charges against Pierce, 145-146; letter from Hunter, charges against Pierce, 146-147.
- Ruffin, Frank G., letter to Hunter, Gov. McDonald for cabinet, 149; mentioned, 273; conference with, 286.
- Ruffin, Thomas, attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Ruffner, ———, political activity, 270.
- Rupely, Charles, political attitude of, 180, 181.
- Rupely, John, ed. Argus, political attitude, 180, 181.
- Rush, Richard, and Germany, 92; letter to Mason, Calhoun's speech, 106; letter to Hunter, bimetalism, 139-140; mentioned for presidency, 141.
- Rusk, Thomas J., proposed for com. against Wilmot proviso, 104; resolution signed by, 104; and the presidency, 195; and the vice presidency, 216.
- Russell, ———, support of Buchanan, 195.
- Russell, Charles W., Va. delegate to Charleston, 301; attitude at Charleston convention, 322.
- Letters to Hunter*: (1860), presidential contest, 325-326; the seceding States at Charleston, 328; protests against address signed by latter regarding Charleston convention, 329-330; suggests that latter retire from contest for presidency, seceders at Charleston, 330-331.

- Russell, John T., pub. of the Argus, letter from S. M. Pettengill Co., 175.
- Russia, political conditions (1849), 93-94.
- Rust, Albert, attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Sacramento City, Calif., shipping, 98, 99, 100; price of barley at, 102; as port of entry, 102.
- Sacramento River, transportation, 97, 100, 101.
- St. Louis Intelligence*, 169.
- St. Louis Republican*, 313, 314.
- St. Paul, stage route to Superior, 287.
- Saltillo, operations at, 86.
- Sanders, George N., influence of, 201; support of Hunter, 230.
- Letters from Hunter*: (1851), political sentiment in Richmond, 126; concerning letter from Douglas, 127-128; opinion of Senator Westcott, Donelson and Webster, 128.
- San Diego, Cal., as port of entry, 102.
- San Francisco, disadvantages as port of entry, 97-104; route to N. Y., 264.
- San Joaquin River, transportation, 97, 100, 101.
- San José Valley, supplies for, 98.
- San Juan valley, Calif., supplies for, 98.
- Santa Anna, Antonio L. de, position of, 86.
- Santo Domingo, situation of, 308.
- Saratoga*, corvette, 87.
- Saunders, Romulus M., address of, 41.
- Savannah, G. A., Southern convention at, 200-201.
- Sawyer, Samuel T., influence of, 190, 209; opposition to, 208.
- Schele de Vere, Maximilian, letter to Hunter, political conditions in Germany, 91-94.
- Schell, Augustus, proposed for vice presidency, 175; political activity of, 181; political attitude, 230; opinion concerning business, 261.
- Scott, Robert E., political opinion of, 224.
- Scott, Robert G., letter to, 78; and consulate, 156.
- Scott, Winfield, and Gen. Taylor, 86; command in Mex., 95; influence of, 135; candidacy and Whig party, 140, 148; as brig.-gen., 266, 267.
- Seoville, Joseph A., letter from Geo. Bottes, 38-39; sec. of Calhoun com., 47, 48, 49; conversation with Rhett, 50; candidacy for legislature, 51.
- Letters to Hunter*: (1842), Calhoun party in N. Y., 39-40, 41-44, 51-55, 55-57; introducing E. I. Porter, 57-58; (1843), proposed Life of Calhoun, 59.
- Seawell, John, speech by, 193, 194; delegate to Cincinnati convention, 194.
- Sebastian, William K., resolution signed by, 104; opinion concerning Indian policy, 319.
- Secession, signs of, 275; predicted, 305; imminence of, 339; Webster on right of, 343; Va. and, 344, 345, 347-348, 350-351; condition of slavery under, 346-347; labor conditions and, 346-347.
- Secor, Charles A., and Calhoun's candidacy, 42, 43; conversation with Rhett, 50.
- Seddon, James A., relations with Hunter, 8, 9; resolutions written by, 8; correspondence, 12; chairman Calhoun com., 61; pamphlet suggested, 78; mentioned, 110, 113; political opinion, 198, 231; conference with, 286, 287; candidacy as delegate to Charleston, 296; defeated for delegate, 314, 315, 317.
- Letters to Hunter*: (1843), organization for Calhoun in Va., 63-64; (1844), political conditions, Calhoun's candidacy, 66-67; conversation with Calhoun, situation in S. C., 67-69; Calhoun's candidacy, situation in S. C., 69-70; Polk's election, organization for Calhoun in Va., 72-74; (1848), recommending Caskie, urges support of Cass, 90-91; (1852), latter's reelection to Senate, 131-132; States rights and Southern Democracy, 136-139; (1855), relations of Hunter and Wise, 172-174; (1859), the John Brown affair, 280-284.
- Seddon, John, letter to M. R. H. Garnett, Hunter, and the Enquirer, 251; conference with, 286; and Charleston delegates, 296.
- Segar, ———, candidate for Va. legislature, 208.
- Semcoe, Lake, canal via, 170.
- Senator*, steamer, 99.
- Sergeant, John, son-in-law of, 297.
- Sewart, ———, of Va., 33.
- Seward, William H., at peace conference, 9; attitude on slavery, 108, 112, 338; and Fillmore, 120; political leadership, 170; and the tariff, 185; elected gov. of N. Y., 269; opposition in Senate to, 278; distribution of speech of, 298; attitude toward labor, 312; candidacy for pres., 313.
- Seymour, ———, political activity, 38.
- Seymour, Gov. Horatio, invitation to attend meeting, 277.
- Shands, E. A., letter from Hunter, 245.
- Sherman, John, candidate for Speaker, 278, 290.
- Sherman, Wooster, letter to Hunter, Democracy of the North loyal to South, 277-278.
- Sherrard, Joseph H., support of Hunter, 303, 305.
- Shields, Gen. James, opposition to, 157.
- Shocco, political meeting at, 48.
- Sierra Nevada, miners along, 98.
- Simkins, Dr. Jesse L., position sought by, 151-152; election of, 187; political attitude of, 190; appointment as navy agt., 208; opposition to Enquirer, 251.
- Slamm, Levi D., and Calhoun's candidacy, 40, 41, 42, 43, 43, 52.
- Slavery, African trade with Brazil, 87; in Ky., 105-106; speeches on, 108, 110-111; fight for Kansas, 160-161, 262; Missouri, 161; abolition of, 164; stealing of slaves, 191; legislation regarding, 238; extension of, 243; powers of Congress concerning, 259-260; Jefferson's opinion concerning, 270-271; attitude of Methodists towards, 291-292, 297; Douglas and, 303; rights in Territories, 321; and election of 1860, 338; attitude of Seward to, 338; condition under secession discussed, 346-347. See also Abolition; Compromise of 1850; Fugitive-slave law; Kansas; Kansas-Nebraska act; Missouri compromise; Negroes, secession.
- Slidell, John, and the presidency (1860), 272.
- Smalley, Judge David A., influence of, 307.
- Smith, ———, attitude of, 190, 191.
- Smith, Col. C. F., recommendation by, 187; proposed for brig.-gen., 267; inquiry concerning Japanese, 331.
- Smith, J. C., marriage of, 39.
- Smith, John W., letter introducing, 147.
- Smith, Gen. P. F., proposed as head of Army, 267.
- Smith, R. M., interest in newspaper, 213; political opinion of, 216; and Va. Sentinel, 224; attitude toward Hunter, 230, 231.
- Smith, Gov. William, candidate for Senate, 84-85, 224; opposition to Hunter, 174; recommendation by, 213-214; conversation with Buchanan, 225; defeat for Senate, 230; and the Rockingham resolutions, 256; attitude in speakership contest, 274.

- Snead, ———, purchase of Kanawha lands, 220.
 Snelling, Fort, sale of, 222, 244.
 Soulé, Pierre, thanks due, 120.
 South, Impressions in Europe concerning, 275-276.
 South. See Richmond South.
 South Carolina, Calhoun's strength in, 61; political situation, (1842) 49, (1844) 66-67, 68-69, (1848) 91; disunion sentiment in, 69, 70-71; political position, 165; discount legislation of banks, 174; Hunter's strength in, 182; members of Congress and the speakership, 274; action of Md. legislature on communication from, 290-291; and Charleston convention, 322; delegates to Richmond convention, 332.
 Southern convention, proposed, (1845) 78, (1850) 126-127, (1860) 286.
 Southern Literary Messenger, articles for, 69, 78; eulogy of Calhoun for, 110.
 Southern Press, 113, 120.
 Southern Review, 78.
 Southern Rights party, position of, 137; situation in Va., 213; and contest for Speaker, 253-254.
 Southern Statesman, failure of, 255.
 South Side Railroad, Va., 142.
 Spain, Am. colonies, 183.
 Spectator. See Washington Spectator.
 Spirit of Jefferson, 305.
 Stallworth, James A., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
 Stanard, W. G., acknowledgment for use of Hunter letter, 60n.
 States, article in, 332.
 States rights in Va., 90, 91.
 States Rights party, in Va., 8, 232, 234; and southern Democracy, 137-139; Pierce and, 151, 153; influence of, 154; and Hunter, 195, 233.
 Steanst, ———, 119.
 Stephens, Alexander H., at peace conference, 9.
 Stephenson, ———, regiment of, 105.
 Stevens, Gov. Isaac I., Indian treaties, 188, 189.
 Stevens, Thaddeus, political plan, 198.
 Stevenson, Andrew, resolution offered by, 42.
 Stevenson, John W., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
 Stidell, ———, support of Forney, 179.
 Stiles, William H., and German affairs, 92.
 Stockton, Calif., as port of entry, 102; price of barley at, 102.
 Stone, David M., letter to Hunter, tariff reductions, 184-185.
 Stone, W. W., urges revision of tariff, 185.
 Stout, Lansing, letter from W. Sherman, 278.
 Streeter, Farris B., solicitor, removal of, 230.
 Strickland, Judge, defeat in Pa. convention, 299.
 Strother, James F., aid solicited, 135.
 Stroughton, H. E., Vt., delegate to Charleston, 307.
 Stuart, ———, N. Y., 40.
 Stuart, ———, influence in S. C., 69.
 Stuart, Alexander H. H., correspondence, 12.
 Suisun Bay, shipping, 99.
 Sumner, Charles, attack on Butler, 196; attack on, 223.
 Sumter, Thomas D., letter to Hunter, South should name Democratic nominee, 327.
 Superior, Wis., description of, 168; land interests, 168-171; road to Medary, 262; roads to, 287; taxes due on lands of, 287-288.
 Superior, Lake, land interests on, 159, 164.
 Superior Chronicle, 169, 170.
 Supreme Court, federal recommendation for appointment to, 333, 334, 335. See also Judiciary.
 Sutton, Norborne E., letter from Alex. Fleet, 37-38.
 Tait, Dr. Thomas M., appointment as 6th auditor, 224, 225, 226, 229; and Hunter, 231.
 Talbot, P. S. J., Maine delegate to Charleston, 301.
 Tallafarro, Warner, opposition to Enquirer, 251.
 Tallafarro, William B., speech by, 192; opposition to Enquirer, 251.
 Tallmadge, Frederick A., and speakership contest, 351.
 Tammany Society, Hunter's correspondence with, 8; political note, 42; Calhoun committee, 45-46; influence of, 53.
 Tansill, R., letter to Hunter, predicts dissolution of Union, 305-306.
 Tariff, French, 185-186; (1842), Buchanan's vote, 189; (1844), dissatisfaction with, 68, 70; (1845), Polk and, 75-77; (1846), Pierce's attitude toward, 151; duty on Eng. galvanized tin, 158; (1856), modification of, 184-185, 185-186, 201; (1857), Hunter and, 9; revision of, 204; Pa. and, 261; (1860), Morrill's bill, 312; effect on Democratic party, 333-334.
 Taylor, Col., and the southern convention, 127.
 Taylor, Henry A., letter to Hunter, political conditions in Ala., 34-35.
 Taylor, William P., candidacy, 64.
 Taylor, Zachary, and Gen. Scott, 86; candidacy, 91; administration of, 115; military staff, 119; influence ruling, 313.
 Taylor Co., Va., delegates, 181.
 Tazewell, Littleton W., letter to Hunter, compromise measures, 115-118; letter returned, 119.
 Tehuantepec, route across, 264.
 Temple, ———, mentioned, 28.
 Tennessee, opposes southern convention, 126-127; political situation (1852), 142; resolution before Balto. convention, 331.
 Texas, dispatches to, 75; Southern attitude toward, 115; purchase of territory from, 117; annexation of, 183; question of admission of, 243; and Charleston convention, 320, 322. See also next entry.
 Texas question, Newton's vote on, 74; Benton and, 75; Calhoun on, 75, 77; Webster and, 111.
 Thiers, Louis A., on French republic, 93.
 Thomas, Wileman, appointment sought by, 213-214.
 Thompson, ———, efforts in behalf of Calhoun, 60.
 Thompson, ———, claim of, 209-210.
 Thompson, ———, Va. delegate to Charleston, 317.
 Thompson, George W., mentioned, 180; political inactivity of, 181; letter to Hunter, political conditions in Ky., 195.
 Thompson, Honerton, attitude of, 229.
 Thompson, Jacob, support of Hunter, 226; attitude toward Va. contest, 229; letter to Hunter, recommending appropriation for return to Africa of negroes, 336.
 Thompson, John R., letter to Hunter, requesting eulogy of Calhoun, 110.
 Thomson, George F., letters to Hunter, advantages of private bonding houses, 122-124, 135-136.
 Thornton, James B., Jr., letter to Hunter, opposition to his renomination, 37.

- Tiffany, H. C., letter to Hunter, requests political documents, 331.
- Tin, duties on English, 158.
- Tod, David, U. S. minister to Brazil, 89.
- Toombs, Robert, attitude toward slavery, 9; and the compromise measures, 120.
- Toucey, Isaac, attitude toward Hunter, 253; influence of, 261.
- Towle, Jerry, support of Hunter, 352.
- Trade, balance of, 270. See also Free trade.
- Transcript*, Portsmouth (?), and the contest for Senate, 235.
- Treasury building, Washington, D. C., fire in, 36.
- Trumbull, Lyman, attitude toward Seward, 278.
- Tucker, —, letter from Hoge, 315.
- Tucker, Beverley, and Calhoun's candidacy, 61; influence of, 125; message from Hunter, 127-128; copies of articles for, 159; and Hunter, 179; editorship sought by, 202.
- Tucker, Henry St. G., Hunter's law tutor, 7.
- Tucker, John R., letters to Hunter; (1851), latter's candidacy for Senate, 130-131; (1858), Seward's election as gov., 269; (1860), recommending W. J. Robertson for Supreme Court, 335.
- Tucker, Randolph, proposed as Charleston delegate, 304.
- Tully, —, mentioned, 157.
- Tuscaloosa, Ala., Whig meeting at, 35.
- Twiggs, Brig.-Gen. D. E., 266.
- Tyler, John, influence sought, 41; political attitude, 54; pres. candidacy (1844), 59.
- Tyler, John, jr., letter to Hunter, latter's election to Senate, 83-84.
- Tyler, Robert, and Calhoun, 42, 65.
- Tyler, Robert, of Pa., influence of, 300.
- Underwood, W. C., report on land bounties, 155.
- Underwood constitution, Va., 360, 362, 364.
- United Virginia and North Carolina Agricultural Society, invitation from, 222.
- Union Democrats, 137.
- Vaché, Dr., and Calhoun's candidacy, 42, 43.
- Vaiden, Dr. Thomas J., classmate of Hunter, 302, 303.
- Vallandigham, Clement L., attitude in speakership contest, 274.
- Valley Democrat*, support for Hunter, 179.
- Van Buren, Martin, subtreasury plan, 7; candidacy (1840) 30, 31, (1844) 40, 42, 43, 54, 56, 57, 61, 63, 64, 65; and Calhoun, 32; criticism of, 36; attitude of Calhoun com. towards, 48; and Polk, 49; and public printing, 96.
- Verein, to be established, 93.
- Vermont, political conditions (1860), 306-307 delegates to Charleston, 307.
- Virginia and secession, 9, 278-279, 344, 345, 347-348, 350-351; petition for sale of lands, 35-36; political importance, 53; and Calhoun's candidacy, 61, 63-64, 73, 78; political situation (1844) 72, (1851) 124-126, 130, (1855) 161-163, 171-172, (1856) 181, (1857) 212, 220-222, (1860) 321; and Nashville convention, 111; land bounties, 154-155; opposition to Know-nothing party in, 163; sale of State stock, 163; elections, (1855) 164, (1857) 211; political prominence, 164-165; and the presidency (1856), 172, 183-184; complaints against discount practices of banks, 174-175; Buchanan's popularity in, 187; slave stealing in, 191; Fillmore's campaign in, 199; flax, 203, 204; control of legislature, 207; contest for U. S. Senate (1857), 210-221 passim, 224, 225, 229, 231-232, 234-236, 241-242, 244, 250-253; and a constitutional convention, 276-277; effect of Jno. Brown affair in, 281-283; support of Hunter for presidency, 286-287; delegates to Charleston, 301, 303-304, 314-316, 317, 320, 322, 352; proposed coalition with Pa. and Md., 337; trials of reconstruction, 356-359; discussion of political problems of, 359-365; gubernatorial contest (1869), 359-361.
- Virginia, University of, Hunter at, 7; student conduct at, 27, 28; retirement of teacher at, 177; appointment of visitor, 181.
- Virginian*. See Winchester Virginian.
- Virginia resolutions, 341.
- Virginia Sentinel*, purchase of, 213, 216; on Va. senatorship, 224; attitude toward Hunter, 230.
- Wagner, —, of the New Orleans Courier, 120.
- Walker, —, candidacy for gov. of Va., 360-361.
- Walker, Col., commandant of cadets, West Point, 269.
- Walker, Robert J., messenger employed by, 147; and the tariff, 184, 185; and Kan., 210, 211, 213, 217, 225, 238-241.
- Walker, Samuel T., letter from Hunter, on Kan. question, 245.
- Walker, William, expedition to Central America, 182.
- Wallbridge, —, contract signed by, 262.
- Warehouses, advantages of private over govt., 122-124, 135-136.
- Wartmann, John H., letter from Harris, 245.
- Washington, —, of Westmoreland, Va., attitude of, 127.
- Washington, George, Everett's address on, 222.
- Washington, Lucius Q., paper on Hunter, 12; telegram to Hunter, Va. and N. Y. delegates against gag rule at Charleston, 320; political opinion of, 325.
- Washington, Peter G., supporter of Guthrie, 272.
- Washington, D. C., mail route to New Orleans, 264.
- Washington Globe*, cited, 68; purchase of, 96; reference to editors, 142.
- Washington Union*, and free soil interests, 96; attitude of editors, 126, 142, 213, 216; and charges against Pierce, 147; influence with Buchanan, 236.
- Washington Spectator*, Calhoun newspaper, 62; possible sale of, 72.
- Weaver, —, of Accomac, speech by, 194.
- Webster, Daniel, pamphlet against, 36; appreciation of, 108; speech on slavery, 108, 110-111; Donelson and, 128; Whig support, 148; influence over Taylor, 313; on the right of secession, 343.
- Webster, Sidney, letter to Hunter, concerning the Boston Courier, 254.
- Weed, Thurlow, leadership of, 290.
- Weller, John B., opposition to, 157; letter of introduction from, 270.
- Wells, —, candidacy for gov. of Va., 360, 362.
- Wentworth, John, and public printing, 96.
- Westcott, James D., resolution signed by, 104; Hunter's opinion of, 128.

- West Indies, British, proposed colonization of negroes in, 119, 120-122; fate of, 346.
- West Point military academy, appointment to, 134-135; increase of cadet corps proposed, 268; superintendency of, 269.
- Wheeling Argus*, letter proposing Hunter for presidency, 175; support of Hunter, 178; editor, 180, 181; and public printing, 229.
- Whig*. See Richmond Whig.
- Whig party, in South, 137; division of, 148; and the tariff, 184; attitude of, in election of 1856, 198-199; and speakership contest, 351.
- White, John, elected speaker, 8.
- White, Samuel C., position sought by, 157.
- Whittier, John G., letter to, 8.
- Wick, William W., letters to Hunter: (1860), slavery in the Territories, 321-322; Democracy and the platform of 1856, political situation, 323-325.
- Wilcox, ———, suit against Superior land owners, 288.
- William of Prussia, Prince, and German revolution, 92.
- Willis, John, political opinion of, 220-221.
- Wilmot proviso, Cass and, 91; resolution against, 104; and the Senate, 113; restriction of, 247; support in Pa., 300.
- Wilson, Henry, opinion concerning presidency, 164; on Mason's resolution, 278; Hunter's reply to, 284.
- Wilson, John, military reservation and, 159.
- Wilson, Joseph S., letter to Hunter, Land Office warrants, 336.
- Winchester Virginian*, public printing awarded to, 181; editors, 301, 305.
- Winder, W. H., letters to Hunter: (1860), commending latter's speech, 290-291; urges wide distribution of latter's speech, 297-299; corruptionists against latter's candidacy, 318.
- Winona Democrat*, tribute to Hunter in, 302.
- Wirt, William, appreciation of, 133.
- Wisconsin, tax decision of supreme court, 288.
- Wise, Henry A., correspondence examined, 12; relations with Hunter, 37, 144-145, 150, 171, 172-174, 179, 183, 197, 202, 206-209, 212, 227-228, 352; political activity of, 125, 190, 227-229; and candidacy for Senate, 130, 131, 150, 210-211, 213-218, 221, 224-226, 229-231, 234-233, 242, 244, 253, 270; legation sec. for son of, 156; newspaper supporting, 161; position of, 164-165; to attend Young Men's Dem. Club, 166; Univ. of Va. visitor appointed by, 181; support of, Buchanan, 187; resolution favoring, 192-193; indorsement by, 214; and the vice presidency, 216; and the Richmond Enquirer, 217, 218; political alliance with Floyd, 217, 226, 228-229, 231; alliance with Faulkner, 226, 231; opposition to Crutchfield for speaker, 251; and the Jno. Brown affair, 278, 280, 281-282, 286, 288, 293, 294; opposition to, 284; speech hurtful to, 285; political strength of, 287; popularity of, 288-289; and the presidency, 293, 294-297, 301, 304, 315, 317, 352; Va. delegates for, 295-296; in Richmond, 297; political opinion of, 321; and speakership contest, 351.
- Letter to Hunter*: (1847), U. S. and Brazil, denounces imperialism, 87-90; (1851), political conditions in Va., 124; (1852), asks appointment for friend, 151-152; (1853), federal patronage, 156-157.
- Wise, O. J., editor of the Enquirer, 215.
- Wood, D. H., letter to Hunter, latter's candidacy and letter on Kan. question, contest for speakership, 252-254.
- Wood, Fernando, candidacy, 44, 50.
- Woodbury, Charles L., letters to Hunter: (1856), the tariff, 185-186; (1860), introducing Geo. Dennett, 314.
- Woodbury, Levi, and Calhoun's candidacy, 54.
- Woodhouse, of Nash and Woodhouse, 129, 130.
- Woods, Maj., reduction of, 95.
- Wool, Brig.-Gen. J. E., 266.
- Wool, tariff, 184.
- Woolfolk, ———, Va., political attitude, 84.
- Worcester Co., Md., Pearce's speech in, 199.
- Wright, Gov. Joseph A., on the tariff, 184; appointed minister to Prussia, 213; and Bright, 323.
- Wright, Silas, and Calhoun, 40, 41, 74; opposition to, 43; and Van Buren, 52, 57.
- Yancey, William T., letter to Hunter, latter's speech, Wise's position, 294-295; and the slavery question, 323; leadership of, 332.
- Young, of Gallaher, Young, and Co., 169.
- Young, ———, of Calhoun com., Richmond, 61.
- Young, John, and Van Buren's candidacy, 58.
- Young Men's Democratic Club, N. Y., anniversary celebration, 165.
- Yulee, David L., resolution signed by, 104.
- Zollverein, work of, 93.